South of the Border Pastels...

Our students will also have the opportunity to strengthen their compositional and coloring skills as they illustrate musical instruments that are important to Mexican heritage. We'll learn about painter Diego Rivera and create a pastel masterpiece inspired by his work. No prior experience with pastel chalks is necessary. Please wear an old shirt or a smock to class each day.

Anime/Manga Introduction

(Entering Grades 3-5)
Dates: June 29 - July 3, 2026
Meets: M, Tu, W, Th and F from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM
Location: Education Bldg, Room 308
In this painting class, artists dive into the colorful worlds of acrylic paint and watercolor, discovering how two very different paints can create amazing effects. Participants learn how acrylics can be bold and bright while watercolors flow and blend. Participants will experiment with brush techniques, color mixing, textures, and resist methods. One day students may paint a vibrant landscape with acrylics, the next they might create a soft, dreamy watercolor scene. Along the way, they build artistic confidence, fine motor skills, and an appreciation for how different materials change the look and feeling of art.

Dates: June 29 - July 3, 2026
