

Mission Trail Music Festival

OCTOBER 10, 2026

1:00 PM - 10:00 PM

Socorro Mission

328 S Nevarez Road, Socorro, TX 79927

Destination El Paso, in partnership with El Paso County, proudly announces the first Mission Trail Music Festival, taking place Saturday, October 10, 2026, throughout the historic nine-mile El Paso Mission Trail. Created to celebrate the heritage, history and unique character of one of the region's most treasured cultural corridors, the new festival will invite residents and visitors to experience the Mission Trail through a full day of music, local vendors, family-friendly activities, cultural programming and more.

Music, Culture & History Come Together

Experience the history, traditions and communities of El Paso's Mission Valley at the inaugural Mission Trail Music Festival on Saturday, October 10, 2026.

Spend the day exploring El Paso's historic Mission Trail with festival experiences at Ysleta Mission, Socorro Mission and San Elizario Presidio Chapel. Each stop along the trail will feature its own activities and entertainment, giving you even more to discover throughout the day.

Enjoy live music, dance and cultural performances, local vendors, interactive activities, family-friendly fun and more. From one stop to the next, experience the traditions, stories and communities that make the Mission Trail such a special part of El Paso.

Make a Day of the Mission Trail

There's even more to experience beyond the festival. As you travel along the Mission Trail, explore local restaurants, shops, galleries, historic sites, attractions and businesses throughout the area.

Spanning approximately nine miles through El Paso's Mission Valley, the Mission Trail connects centuries of history with the people and communities keeping its traditions alive today.
